COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

—The second number of the Lyceum Course was presented at the High School Auditorium, Tuesday evening by "The Bonnie Lassies," before a well-filled house. The next two numbers occur as follows: "The Colleen," at Millersburg College, and November 14, "The Argus Magician," at Millersburg High School.

Col. W. R. Nelson, Superintendent of Millersburg Military Institute, conducted the exercises in chapel Wednesday morning. Every one present enjoyed the helpful talk made by him. The visitors present were: Mesdames Joe Smith, Russell Hickman, J. T. Judy; Messrs. Clark Bascom, Ashby Leer, H. C. Burroughs, and Mr. and Mrs. Burns and little daughter, of Mayslick.

Miss Fannie Burroughs entertained the young ladies of the High School faculty to dinner Saturday. The teachers and pupils of the school are working through the Dunlap Magazine Agency to secure a Victrola for school use, the Agency allowing a commission on each new subscription or renewal. Anyone desiring anything in the magazine line will please give us your aid. Every magazine published is handled by this agency, clubbing rates being allowed on all but publications of the Curtis Publishing Company.

DEATHS

Life Is But A Brief Span, A Debt That All Must Pay

FORD

—Miss Lula Ford, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Ford, pioneer residents of Paris, died at her home on West Seventh street, Tuesday morning, following a protracted illness due to a complication of diseases. Miss Ford had been in declining health for several years, the disease baffling efforts of physicians.

Miss Ford was a consistent and devoted member of the Paris Methodist church, and was prominent in all its good works. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her, and her life was a constant tribute to the power of a good woman in any community. She is survived by three sisters, Misses Mary A. Ford and Alice T. Ford, of Paris, and Miss Sue Ford, of Key West, Fla., and two brothers, Prof. Ed. Ford, of Sharpestown, Maryland, and William N. Ford, of Tampa, Florida.

The funeral was held at four o'clock Wednesday afternoon, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery, by Rev. C. H. Greer, pastor of the Paris Methodist church. The pall-bearers were: Dr. J. T. Vansant, Henry A. Power, G. W. Featherston, James McClure, M. E. McCurdy and Woodford Spears.

McWILLIAMS

—Wm. McWilliams, aged forty-nine, a brother of George McWilliams, of Paris, died in Newport from the effects of injuries received in a runaway accident in Newport a few days ago. Mr. McWilliams was driving in a buggy, when the vehicle was struck by an automobile. The horse became frightened and ran away, throwing Mr. McWilliams to the ground. His skull was fractured.

Mr. McWilliams was well-known in Paris, where he had frequently visited his brother and other relatives. Besides George McWilliams he is survived by another brother, J. P. McWilliams, of Lawrenceburg, and two sisters, Mrs. Susie Conley, of Ludlow, and Mrs. Rosa Cunningham, of Woodford county.
